Various authors. Indios y Blancos en La Guajira: Estudio Socio-Económico /Indians and Whites in La Guajira: A Socio-economic Study/. Bogotá: Ediciones Tercer Mundo, 1963.

Pp. 324; 96 photographs; 9 maps, 7 charts; appendix; bibliography.

Yale: CF2281 G8 I53.

[This important study of the Guajira consists of a number of chapters by different authors, including: Geography by Ernesto Guhl, Morphological Outline by Hans Bürgl, Natural Resources by A. L. Stafle, The Guajiro Indian: Ethnographic Summary by Roberto Pineda, Social Organization by Virginia Gutiérrez de Pineda, Menstruation by Gloria Triana Varón, Legal Institutions by Alvaro Camacho and Nora Segura, Marehwa and Wanurú by Roberto Pineda Giraldo, the Capuchin Mission by José Agustín de Barranquilla, Problems of the High Guajira by Alvaro Guzmán Cortés, The Privileged Situation by Antonio López Ipieyu, History by Gregorio Hernández de Alba and a final chapter on Social Impacts. The volume concludes with an extensive bibliography.]

Surveyed in 1966.